OFFICIAL COMMUNIQUE TO ANCCE MEMBERS ABOUT THE PROXY

At the April 9 meeting, in compliance with the mandates laid out in Article 11 of the By-laws and agreed to by the Board of Directors in exercise of their duties as recognized in Article 37 a), the following agreements were adopted about proxy voting:

- Representative on behalf of corporations: A corporations must appoint a representative to exercise membership rights. A single individual may not represent more than three (3) members.
- Representation on behalf of individual members: The individual member may knowingly designate a representative to carry out his/her membership rights. A single individual may only represent another member.

In accordance with these rules, an example of maximum representation that a single person could hold would be as follows:

Representative 1: individual member // corporate member

Representative 2: corporate member

Representative 3: corporate member

If the maximum number of representations is exceeded, the ANCCE staff will inform the last member to have sent their representative's appointment, so that this can be changed.

Members must inform ANCCE of their representative's appointment, obligatory or voluntary, before 12 noon on the 11th of May, 2010.
